STARTLING, BUT TRUE! WHAT EVERY WOMAN SHOULD KNOW.

Reader, are you a hurband or a father I a wife or a mother I Have you the sinears welfare of those you love at heart I Prove your sincertry, and loss no time in instring what causes interfere with their health and happiness not less than your own. It will avoid to you and yours, as it has to thousands, many a day of pain and surrely followed by alequiess nights, insuppositating the solid for its ordinary avocation and exhausting those means for medical attendance, medicines and advertised nostroms, which otherwise would provide for declining years, the infirmities of age and the proper education of your children.

How often it happens that the wife lingers from year to year in that pitiable condition as not even for one day to feel the happy and exhibitating infinance incident to the enjoyment of health, areing from ignorance of the simplest and plainest rules of health as connected with the marriage state, the violation of which cotails disease, suffering and misery.

"And must this centime ! Most this be ! Is there no remedy! No relief! No hope?"

The reuncily is by knowing the causes and avoiding them, and knowing the remedies and benefiting by them.

These are pointed out in THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION.

PROFESSION OF DESTANDE OF WORKS One Hundralth Edition, (500,000), 18mo., pp. 250. [ON PINE PAPER, EXTRA BENDERG, $1.00.] 2 standard work of established re-untation, found classes in the estabogues of the great tends cales in New York Philadelphia, and other crites, and sold by the princin bootsetter; in the United States. It was first published in 1847, since which time the author having devoted his excusive attention to the treatment of emulaints peculiar to females, in respect to which he is yourly consulted by threesands both in person and by latter. Here every woman can discover, by comparing her own symptoms with those described, the nature, character, causes of, and the proper remedies for, her complaints.

The wife about becoming a mother has often need a instruction and advice of the utmost importance to her future health, in respect to which her somitivescen for bids consulting a medical gentleman, will find such in struction and advice, and also explain many symptoms which otherwise would occasion anxiety or alarm as al the peculiarities incident to her situation are described.

How many are suffering from obstructions or tregular Itles peculiar to the female system, which undermine th health, the effects of which they are ignorant, and for which their delicacy forbids seeking medical advices Many suffering from prolapsus uteri (falling of the womb), or from floor albus (weakness, debility, &c.) Many are in constant agony for many months preceding confinement Many have difficult if not dangerous deliveries and slow and uncertain recoveries. Some whose lives are hazarded during such time, will such find in its pages the means of prevention, amelioration and relief.

It is of course impracticable to convey fully the various subjects treated of, as they are of a nature strictly intended for the married or those contemplating marriage In consequence of Continensal popularity of the work, as evidenced by its extraordinary sale, various impositions have been attenued, as well on hookesilers as on the purely, by imitations of copyright, and other devices and survey-tions infringements of copyright, and other devices and septions, it has been found accessary, therefore, to

If you have contracted as terrible disease which, when once seated in the latem, will surely go down from one generation Language, underning the constitution and sapple, the very vital fluids of life, do not trust yoursel, in the bands of Quacks, who start up every day in a try like this, and fill the papera with glaring false looks, too well calculated to decive the young, all those not acquainted with their tracks. You care he too care ut in the selection of a remedy in the

The Fluid Extract Buchu has been pronounced by eminent physicians the greatest remedy ever known. It is a medich a perfectly pleasant in its known. It is a medic) a perfectly pleasant in its taste, and very innocent in its section, and yet so thorough that it annihilates every particle of the rank and poisonous virus of this dreadful disease; and unlike other remedies, does not dry up the disease in the blood.
